²⁵ Господь добрий для тих, хто надію на Нього кладе, для душі, що шукає Його!

Church full of people on December 24th, Christmas Sunday Morning

With December being Christmas month, things were busy with church family and church celebrations. Due to the holiday season, we took our annual break from outreach activities and midweek Bible study until mid-January when we resume our normal schedule. December brought many blessings:

- We were invited again this year to celebrate with Alyona Vinogradova (our tutor/translator/administrator) for her Birthday! She and her family always make us feel at home and almost like family. This really helps being away from our family during the holidays.
 - We were invited to attend the musical performance for the son of one of our church families. Adrian did a great job. He and his family are very special to us.
 - We also did a live video chat with Pastor Wayman Bond and First MBC in Buchanan, MI, during their worship service.
 - Sunday, December 24th, was our church Christmas celebration with a high of 42 in attendance. There was singing, preaching, a special children's program, games, fellowship, and of course lots of food! Ukraine now is ceasing to celebrate many Russian traditions such as Orthodox Christmas (January 7th) and even refusing to speak many Russian words.
 - Coretta and I also received several special Christmas offerings from many of you back in the states.
- THANK YOU, we are super blessed!

During this holiday break, Coretta and I took a much needed "runaway trip" for a few days to the nearby city of Vinnytsia about two hours away. It was cold and snowy, but we had a great time. We tried a new cafe, took a photo at an auto camera outside a mall entrance, visited a museum with scale models of transportation, and went to the cinema to watch our first movie here in Ukraine! It was in Ukrainian, but we were able to understand parts of it and follow the storyline. We even went "tubbing" at a snow park. We have been married almost 44 years, but we felt like kids on a honeymoon.

In mid-January, we returned to our normal weekly schedule. Everyone was eager to get back to English Club, Thursday Bible Studies, and Men's Bible Studies. Except for a few warm days, January was challenging due to lots of cold weather, snow, and rain. We had much sickness among our congregation and, as usual, it cycled through many of our families more than once. In spite of the weather and sickness we experienced an increase in attendance in both our Sunday service (low 30's) and Thursday Night Bible Study (high of 16).
