February 2024 Report

January was a good month. We visited four churches: Pine Top Landmark MBC, Broken Bow, OK; West Side MBC, New Boston, TX; Austin Chapel, DeKalb, TX, and Echo Hills MBC, Redwater, TX. We received $6,580.09 for the Project Fund giving us a new balance of $37,460.25. Project #19 still has $20,000.00 in reserve, leaving $17,460.26 toward Project #20. All of the other offerings were good as well and can be seen on the back of this report.

The blessings God has seen fit to bestow on this Ministry is far above anything we could have imagined. Not only have local churches been blessed with beautiful buildings and their individual ministry has been enlarged, it has been a positive influence on other churches. Pastors have been encouraged and they have begun to realize they have the ability to expand the gospel themselves and don't have to depend upon the US churches to help.

I was impressed and encouraged by the recent World Mission Conference sponsored by Parma Missionary Baptist Church of Italy and their Mission, Baguio MBC held in Baguio City. It was a Filipino sponsored Mission Conference by a Filipino Church and conducted by Filipino pastors.

Once again, Thank You to each and everyone that is praying and supporting this great Ministry, God loves you and so do we.
