We have met the $500,000 goal for completion of the building (only the building). So far, we have spent $388,000. The remaining items on the building should be finished for less than $12,000. That leaves us with $100,000 for all the outside work (bonus). We have hired a contractor and agreed to a price of $165,000. That means we only need $65,000 to do this completely debt free (basically the cost of paving the parking lot). God is going to do it!!!!!!
